PRESENTS
ACT III, SCENE II OF SHAKESPEARE'S MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

The Lycee Rochambeau (French International School) has over 1100 students from 60 different countries. On any given day, an observer walking down the hallways of the high school will hear many different languages being spoken by the students.

Presenting the lover's confusion from Midsummer Night's Dream with a Moulin Rouge setting, this tenth grade class wishes to represent their every day multiculturalism.
